- A photograph of a cluttered locker room. On the left, a white locker is partially visible. In the center, a white radiator sits against a wall where several items of clothing, including a dark green sweater and a light blue shirt, are hanging. A chair with a white shirt draped over it is positioned in front of the radiator. To the right, more lockers are visible, with a blue jacket hanging on one. A pair of white sneakers and a red and blue shoe are on the floor. A window with blue frames and white blinds is at the top. The floor is made of reddish-brown tiles.
